Louisville
Lexington

A History of Serving the Kentucky Center, The Louisville Orchestra, and the Lexington Philharmonic.

Something spooky this way comes as local students put on their Halloween costumes and head to Gist Piano Center's Haunted Recital Hall for an evening of scary stories, sinister music, and ghostly goodies. Halloween: Friday, October 23, 6pm. FREE and open to all.

Students Will Unleash Their Talent Upon the Innocent at Halloween

Hidden away at the corner of Poplar Level Road and the Watterson Expressway, Gist Piano Center's Haunted Recital Hall will once again come to life with the sounds of children at Halloween, 2009.

Join us Friday, October 23rd at 6pm for an evening of apple bobbing, ghostly goodies, chilling performances and spooky stories read by WUOL's very own Carol Larson!

Admission to Halloween is FREE and the event will be appropriate for all ages. Students are encouraged to wear their costumes!

If you would like to sign up to play at Halloween, contact Barrett Wilson at bwilson@gistpiano.com right away. The DEADline is coming up!

Halloween is the first event in GPC's new "Partners in Education Program (PIE). Ask your teacher for info.
